

Community Inclusion Project

Registration Form

We are in the second phase of establishing an exciting new project called the Community Inclusion Project. The project will enable us to carry out access reviews and disability related training for community groups and community spaces.

We are currently looking for expression of interests from local charities, groups and community organisations, please could you fill the form in below providing as much information as you can. Filling in this form will not comit you to the project but your details will be used to form any funding bids we apply for.
